

INTEGRATED CARE IN PRACTICE

EUREGHA's Annual Conference 2014

2 December 2014, Swedish Permanent Representation to the EU

PROGRAMME
09h00 – 09h30	Registration
09h30 – 09h35	Opening – Welcome to attendees Toni Dedeu, Chair of EUREGHA and Director of Knowledge Exchange and Research, Digital Health Institute, Scotland
09h35 – 09h50	European Innovation Partnership on Active and Healthy Ageing: Integrated Care Loukianos Gatzoulis, Economic and Policy Analyst, Innovation for Health and Consumers, DG SANCO
09h50 – 10h05	The World Health Organisation and Integrated Care in the European Region Viktoria Stein, Roadmap Co-ordinator, Integrated Health Services Delivery, WHO Regional Office for Europe
10h05 – 11h00	Regional and Local Models of Integrated Care <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Amira Donlagic, Project Manager Interacting Care, Region Västra Götaland Antonio Addis, Head of Governance for Research Department, Health Agency of Emilia Romagna Region Juan Carlos Contel, Chronic Care Program and Integrated Health and Social Care Plan, Department of Health, Catalonia Moderated by Nicola Wilson, Senior Health Specialist, North of England EU Health Partnership
11h00 – 11h15	Coffee Break
11h15 – 12h30	Panel Discussion: Challenges of the Implementation of Integrated Care at the Regional and Local Level <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Toni Dedeu, Chair of EUREGHA and Director of Knowledge Exchange and Research, Digital Health Institute, Scotland Maria Chiara Corti, Dpt. Health Care Resource Planning, Veneto Region Sergio Garay, CEO Hälsostaden, Ängelholm Municipality, Region Skåne Juan Carlos Contel, Chronic Care Program and Integrated Health and Social Care Plan, Department of Health, Catalonia Viktoria Stein, Roadmap Co-ordinator, Integrated Health Services Delivery, WHO European Office Moderated by Leo Lewis, Senior Fellow, International Foundation for Integrated Care
12h30 – 12h40	Conclusions Toni Dedeu, Chair of EUREGHA and Director of Knowledge Exchange and Research, Digital Health Institute, Scotland